1 The Lord my Shep-herd guards me well, and all my wants are fed:
 2 Though I should walk in dark-est ways through val-leys like the grave,
 3 For me a ta-ble has been spread where all my foes can see;
 4 Your stead-fast love will fol-low me to shield me all my days

My care-worn soul grows strong and whole when God's true path I tread.
 On my be - half your rod and staff as - sure me you will save.
 My heart and cup are both filled up with joy - ful ec - sta - sy.
 my whole life long to join the song of those who sing God's praise.
