Do as I have done

If I then, your Lord and Master,
have washed your feet;
ye also ought to wash one another's feet

Let this mind be in you,
which was also in Christ Jesus

By love serve one another

We, the members of Peace United Church of Christ, believe that we are called to be a congregation of grace and welcome to all of God's children:

- to celebrate every person as a child of God, created in God's image.
- to love all as God has first loved us.
- to acknowledge the presence of, and offer healing to the wounds of oppression, injustice, prejudice, and hate, and to stand with those who are left out.

Following Christ's example, we welcome and include everyone in all aspects of life, leadership, and ministry of the church. We affirm persons of all races, nationalities, sexual orientations, gender identities, family structures, physical or mental abilities, political stances, faith backgrounds and socio-economic status.

In the way of Jesus, we stand against acts of hate and violence in all their forms.

Therefore, we declare ourselves to be an Open and Affirming Congregation, where an extravagant welcome and grace are extended to all, and each person's gifts are celebrated, welcomed, nurtured and blessed, that all may be one. Amen.

Maundy Thursday

“Maundy” comes from the Latin word meaning mandate or commandment. Tonight we remember and celebrate the new commandment which Jesus shared with his disciples during their last Passover meal together, to “do this in remembrance of me” and to “love one another even as I have loved you.”

WORSHIP SERVICE

Greetings - Prayer Requests – A Time of Centering

Tonight our Jewish brothers and sisters will gather to begin the seven days of the Passover holiday. They will remember the story of God's salvation that has been handed down through the generations. The gospels share with us a different story of how Jesus gathered with his disciples in that Upper Room to celebrate this story of salvation. The Passover Seder that Jesus celebrated in the first century is not necessarily reflected in the rabbinic sources that emerge almost two centuries later.

Still, we turn to the stories as they're told today to remind us of the central message of Jesus' meal with his disciples in that Upper Room. We begin with one of the prayers offered as a Seder meal begins:

Barukh attah Adonai Elohaynu melek ha-olam...

Praise to You, Adonai, our God - Sovereign of the Universe, who has kept us alive and sustained us and allowed us to reach this season.

We pray:

May all who are enslaved throughout the world, come to know freedom. May all who are free, appreciate the blessings of abundance. And may all of us dwell in the house of God and give thanks for our good fortune as we remember the Passover.

RECALLING THE STORY (MAGGID): FROM A BRIEF SEDER

The central part of the Passover Seder is the telling of the story. It begins with the words: We were slaves to Pharaoh in Egypt. But the Lord our God took us out from there with a mighty hand and an out-stretched arm.

Come and hear the story of our people, the story we relive on Seder night.

How our ancestors went forth from the straights of Egypt (Mitzrayim) to the open places of rejoicing and faith.

This story belongs to you and me. An age-old story, it becomes our own when we tell it on Seder night.

A wandering Aramean was my father. He went down to Egypt few in number. There he became a great nation, mighty and numerous. (Deut. 26:5)

In Egypt we discovered our distinctiveness. Few in number, we learned that greatness is more than numbers.

“The Egyptians treated us harshly and oppressed us, they imposed hard labor on us.” (Deut. 26:6)

Their harshness wounded us with false accusations, with venom and hate and distrust.

We cried out to Adonai, the God of our ancestors, He heard our voice and saw our affliction, our toil and our oppression.”

What did Adonai see in Egypt?

He saw families torn asunder, and children made to suffer. God saw the cruelty of Egypt and the helplessness of Israel.

“So Adonai brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand, with an outstretched arm, with awe and signs and wonders.” (Deut. 26:8)

Egypt and Israel felt God's presence in every corner of the land. His signs filled the earth and the sky, his wonders could be seen in every Israelite's eye.

With a mighty hand he demanded justice for the oppressed. With plagues and wonders he taught the Egyptians the lesson of his power.

Together, we remember the 10 plagues: blood, frogs, fleas, wild animals, pestilence, boils, hail, locusts, darkness, the killing of the firstborn.

While we celebrate the freeing of the Israelites from slavery, God has instructed us to take no pleasure in the suffering of the Egyptians.

So may God's signs be present today to teach us of Your justice and Your mighty acts.

Dayenu! (it would have been enough, and we are grateful)

We rejoice in our deliverance by saying Dayenu.

Had God done only a little bit for us, it would have been enough!

We join in singing Dayenu!

If God had taken us out of Egypt,

It would have been enough!

If God had brought us to Mount Sinai but not given us the Torah,

it would have been enough!

If God had given us the Torah but not brought us into the land of Israel,

it would have been enough!

If God had brought us into the land of Israel but not allowed us to build the Temple,

it would have been enough!

REFLECTION “Remembering the Passover”

CHRISTIAN GOSPEL John 13:1-17, 31b-35

REFLECTION “Living into Loving”

RESPONDING IN PRAYER

Father, on this, the night he was betrayed, your Son, Jesus Christ, embodied the story of your salvation.
Serving in love and humility, he washed his disciples' feet.
We commit ourselves to follow his example of love and service.

Lord, hear us
and humble us.

On this night, he prayed for his disciples to be one.
We pray for the unity of your Church...

Lord, hear us
and unite us.

On this night, he prayed for those who were to believe through the ministry of those who were to follow.
We pray for the mission of your Church...

Lord, hear us
and renew our zeal.

On this night, he commanded them to love,
but suffered rejection himself.

We pray for the rejected and unloved...

Lord, hear us

and fill us with your love.

On this night, he reminded them that if the world hated them, it hated him first.

We pray for those who are persecuted for their faith...

Lord, hear us

and give us your peace.

This African folk melody was presented to the Church at Chereponi, Northern Ghana, by Ghanaian musicologist, A. A. Mensah, when United Church of Christ missionaries, Al and Sue Krass were serving there. Like Tom Colvin, a Scottish missionary in neighboring Tamale, Al Krass was encouraging the making of hymns to indigenous melodies. Tom Colvin wrote these words to this adapted form of the melody in dedication to the Church at Chereponi.

SCRIPTURE

1 Corinthians 11:23-26

PRAYER

Holy God, source of all love, on the night of his betrayal, Jesus gave his disciples a new commandment: To love one another as he had loved them.

By your Holy Spirit, write this commandment on our hearts. Let this Sacrament of your body and blood, bread and cup, so work in us that the way we live will proclaim the love and grace you have shared with each of us; for you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

CLOSING PRAYER

My brothers and sisters, God's salvation has been abundantly offered throughout the ages. In Christ, God reveals his love by becoming a humble servant. Let us draw near to God and confess our sin in the truth of his Spirit.

(A time of silence for individual reflection.)

God of love and mercy, you know the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts; you know our coming in and our going out. We confess to you all our sins – those things done and left undone.

We have not loved you with all our heart and mind and strength and soul. Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

We have not loved one another as you have loved us. Christ, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

We have not served others as you have served us. Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy

We have not honored and cared for your creation or sought your ways of peace. Christ, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

We have not fully received the saving grace of your word and life. Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Hear our cry, O Lord. Accept our repentance. Cleanse us, restore us, and lead us, that we may love and serve in newness of life.

(A Time of Silence)

Hear our prayer, O God, as we eagerly await the day of resurrection and rebirth, while trusting in your redeeming love, together we pray as you have taught us:

“Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.”
